

EMOTIONAL BAND-AIDS

Henry, Dolly, and Tink would like you to have their special emotional Band-Aids. You might be hurting, but maybe you're not ready to talk yet, or maybe you're not feeling so wonderful. When you put on a Henry, Dolly, or Tink emotional Band-Aid, it tells people: I'm feeling hurt, or sad, or vulnerable, or insecure, or many other feelings. It will be a signal to all who love you that you need some tender loving care. These little "fur nurses" are here to help you!
